

Kansas Government Finance Officers (KSGFOA)

Kansas Government Finance Officers Association

In response to interest among public finance officers in expanding opportunities for professional development, the Kansas Public Finance Center began conducting regional workshops on public finance at various locations throughout Kansas. When the Kansas Government Finance Officers Association (KSGFOA) was established in 2000, the Finance Center was asked to manage and conduct two professional development workshops and a fall conference each year for Association members.

For more information contact Angela Krummel Buzard.